Note: The British Chamber of Commerce Kenya exists to promote British business in Kenya, encourage UK based businesses to consider Kenya as a business destination, and assist Kenyan businesses in trading with British companies. In order to do this, the Chamber facilitates networking within its membership and enables the marketing of members' products and services to other members and to British companies seeking partners within Kenya.

It is therefore necessary for the Chamber to maintain a Directory that provides key information about member companies. This Directory is hosted on an open-access website and may list all information provided in this form, less the contact details of named individuals.

By signing this form you are consenting to the data you have provided appearing in the British Chamber of Commerce Kenya Membership Directory.

*Membership can be revoked if the member fails to partner with a British company, is found to behave inappropriately with other members or at Chamber events or if they tarnish the integrity of the Chamber in any way.

Declaration
We hereby apply to join membership with the British Chamber of Commerce Kenya for the membership year 1 st October 2019 to 30 th September 2020. We consent to our company information being published in the British Chamber of Commerce website, newsletters and social media including any pictures taken at BCKK events in compliance with the BCKK privacy statement in compliance with GDPR on our website - http://bcckkenya.org/index.php/pages/privacy .
